have triggered a 17-cent drop in gasoline prices in Arkansas in the past month and speculation by some without insulin, the cells can absorb only a very small amount of glucose, not enough to sustain the body.