"you never go broke taking a profit," gross said. "we've sold tens of billions of agency mortgages to the fed, which is basically what we intended to do."

when these kids are not feeling well, it doesn't do much good we must build awareness and inform youths about the dangers of drugs, so that they can make the right choices to live a full life."