the drug mimics the chemical structure of gaba, but its mechanism of action isn't entirely known, and it doesn't appear to affect gaba receptors the clicking noise associated with hypertonicity and asynchronous action of the jaw muscle subsides rapidly after occlusal therapy