It was found that opium was fairly extensively given to children, for the women have to work all day. You accomplish containment through establishing iron-clad boundaries. I wonder how we could be different and disrupt this pattern? I wonder how they would respond then?